General Business	The expression of interest for an inspector course is high. Ben to Receive information from Richard Lorenc about the course. The more inspectors we have the more confidence junior referees will have. The focus on junior referees questions, should	ALL

	we have a junior monitor? The committee decided that separating the branch meetings between Junior and Senior referees would lower attendance and lessen the 'team' feeling. Training:  Snape park still a possibility booking.  Expectation that each referee attends once a month. Where we hold one every Monday night apart from when the branch meeting is on. Each month something new is covered. What is the session structuring going to be? –Training then a small game afterwards. Fitness training will stop at the commencement of the season. Last evening the 28th of March. Offside Newsletter:  A message from the referee's branch. A kind 'good luck for the season' message backing up respect to referees and acknowledging new referees. 'Support them please'. Another message from ESFA to highlight expectations (erg jewellery, etc).  ESFA will take the strict approach on skins and jewellery. No power bands.	ALL ALL Greg Ben ALL Wayne Hillier
